MY PRIVATE OPINIONS.

BY ROUGH AND READY.

Mankind are no better than robbers,
And charity proves but a lie;
Salvation is doled out by jobbers;
Benevolence is all in your eye.

Friendship—a thing of convenience;
Happiness does not exist!
Hope—something far in the distance;
Honor—a prize-fighter's fist.

Contentment is found in the gutter,
And wealth comes of robbing the poor;
Trust steals the bread and the butter
From every grocery store.

True great ness is being successful,
No matter how wrong or how right;
True love while it lasts, is quite blissful,
But it seldom remains over night.

Slander is something quite common;
Where it touches it raises a blister;
It's much used by every true woman
Who is anxious to hold a "frail sister."

True virtue a sorry old maid is,
Whose looks keep temptations away,
While fashion makes all our fine ladies
Who live only to make a display.

Poverty is the worst of all evils;
'Twill keep you in bondage for life,
Change all your relations to—devils
And make a poor slave of your wife.

Your children are objects of pity;
Aristocracy christens them "brats;"
They are kicked about over our city
Like so many troublesome rats.

Christianity dwells where the steeple
Lifts up its tall form towards heaven,
And belongs to a privileged people
Who are christians just one day in seven.

Religion is s mething too holy
For common mankind to possess;
It is with the meek and lowly
Who do something more than "profess."

Deception is found in all places;
'Tis confined to no section or class;
We all have its mark on our faces;
To prove it—just look in the glass!

AN ADVENTURE.

"I never attended but one temperance lecture," said our friend B., with a peculiar smile, "and I don't think I shall ever attend another."

"You probably found it dry?"

"Well, yes—but that isn't it. The lecture was well enough, but I got into an awful scrape after it was over, that I never think of temperance meetings without a shudder. I'll tell you about it. It was in Jersey City, where I was something of a stranger, and the night was one of the season. Boreas! how it blew! It was enough to take your breath away. Well, sir, the lecture was over and making out with the crowd, I lingered in the doorway, contemplating the awful scene, when somebody took my arm.

"Where have you been?" said the sweetest voice in the world. "I have been looking for you everywhere"

Very much surprised I turned my head and saw—but I can't describe her! It makes me mad now to think how prodigiously pretty she was! With her left hand she leaned on my arm; she was arranging her vail with her right and didn't notice my surprise.

"You have been looking for me?" I faltered. "Come, let us be going," was her reply, pressing my arm.

A thrill went to my heart. What to make of my lady's address, I did not know. But she was too charming a creature for me to refuse to accompany her. We started off in the midst of the tempest, the noise of which prevented any conversation. At length she exclaimed with a scream—

"Put your arm around me, or I shall blow away."

I need not describe to you my sensation, as I pressed her to my heart and hurried on. It was very dark; nobody saw us and allowing her to guide my steps, I followed her motions through two or three short streets, until she stopped before an elegant mansion.

"Have you your key?" she asked.

"My key?" I stammered, "there must be some mistake."

"O, I have one."

And as as she opened the door, I stood waiting to bid her good night, or to have some explanation, when turning quickly, she said:—

"How queer you act to night, ain't you coming in?"

There was something very tempting in the suggestion. Was I going in? A warm house and a pretty woman were certainly objects of consideration, and it was dreary to think of facing the storm and seeing her no more.

It took me three-quarters of a second to make up my mind, and in I went. There was a dim light in the hall, and as my guide ran rapidly up stairs, I thought I could do nothing better than to run up too. I followed her into a very dark room.

"Lock the door, John," she said.

Now, as if I had been the only John in the world, I thought she knew me. I felt for the key, and turned it in the lock without hesitation, wondering all the time what was coming next. Then an awful suspicion of some horrid tricks flashed upon my mind, for I have often heard of infatuated men being lured to their destruction by pretty women, and I was on the point of re-opening the door, when my lady struck a light. Then—being an excessively modest man—I discovered to my dismay that I was in a bed room!—alone with a woman in a bed room! I said something, I don't know what it was, but the lady lighted her lamp, looked started at me an instant, turned as white as a pillow case and screamed—

"Who are you? How came you here? Go quick—leave the room—I—I thought you were my husband!" and covering her face with her hands, she sobbed hysterically.

I was petrified. Of course I was quite as anxious to leave, as she was to have me But in my confusion, instead of going out of the door which I had come in, I unlocked another door, and walked into a closet.

Before I could rectify my error there came a terrible thundering at the first door. The lady screamed; the noise increased, and I felt peculiar, knowing very well that now the lady's real husband was coming, and that I was in rather a bad fix.

Well aware that it would not do to remain in the closet, and convinced of the danger of meeting a man who might fall into the vulgar weakness of becoming jealous, I was trying to collect my scattered senses in the darkness, when the lady rushed to me and whispered in a mild manner—

"What shall I do? If you do not go he will kill me."

"O—but consider—"

The thundering at the door drowned her voice She flew to open it. As the wrathful husband burst into the room, I thought I felt a little sold, and crept in under some garments hanging in the closet.

A gruff voice roared and stormed—Othello was jealous and revengeful, Desdemona innocent and distressed—then I heard ominous sounds, as of some one looking under the bed

"I know he is here! I saw him come into the house with you! You locked the door! I'll have his heart out!"

"Hear me! Hear me! I will explain it!"

As I was listening very attentively for the explanation, the garments under which I was concealed were quietly lifted, and fancy my feelings discovered in such a situation, by such a husband

"Well B——," we cried deeply interested, for we knew that every word of his story was true, "how did you get out of the scrape?"

"I used a violent remedy for a violent complaint. Driven in a corner—my life in danger—perceiving at a glance that Othello was not as strong as I was, I threw myself upon him, fell with him and held him there, until I had given a full explanation of the error, made him hear reason, and tamed him to be as gentle as a lamb. Then I left rather unceremoniously, and have never seen Othello or Desdemona since."

DEFINITIONS OF CHARACTER.

Fine Fellows.—The man who advertises in our paper; the man who never refuses to lend you money, and the fellow who is courting your sister.

Genteel People.—The young lady who reads romances in bed; the friend who is always engaged when you call; and the correspondent who cannnot find time to answer your letters.

Unpopular Personages.—A fat man in an omnibus; a tall man in a crowd, and a short man on parade.

Timid People.—A lover about to pop the question; a man who does not like to be shot at, and a steamboat company with a cholera case on board.

Dignified Men.—A cit in a country town; a midshipman on quarter-deck, and a school committee on examination day.

Persecuted People.—Woman, by that tyrant man; boys, by their parents and teachers; and all poor people by society at large.

Unhappy People.—All old bachelors and old maids.

Ambitious Chap.—the writer who pays the magazines for inserting his communications; the politician who quits his party because he cannot get into office, and the boy who expects to be President.

Humble Persons.—The husband who does his wife's churning; the wife who blacks her husband's boots; and the man who thinks you do him so much honor.

Mean People.—The man who kicks folks when they are down; and the subscriber who refuses to pay for his paper.

Sensible People.—You and I.

A YES OR NO.—A simple yes, or an emphatic no, may cost you a fortune—may cost you a troop of friends—may cost you a political promotion—may cost you a character—may cost your soul! How many a public man has had his whole career decided by his course in some trying emergency, or on some great question of right. He is led up into the mount of temptation, where some gigantic iniquity bids him bow down and worship it, and promises in return "all the world and the glory thereof." From that moment of trial, he comes down a hero or a fool. The die is cast. If he has honored justice and truth, then justice and truth will honor him; if not, his bones will be left bleaching on the road to a proportion he can never reach.—Cuyler.

RATHER MIXED.—Not long since a man in Sauk county, Wisconsin, married for his second wife, his own step-mother, who singularly enough, was a sister of his first wife. The lady is therefore, not only his step-mother and aunt to her husband's children, but also their grandmother, while the husband is step-father to his step-sisters. Her issue by this marriage will be not only cousins to their step-brother, but uncles and aunts also. And the lady herself, being grand-mother to her children and nephews, may be regarded as mother to herself and child to herself, and therefore her own grand-mother!

☞ An Englishman, in one of our towns, boasting of his country said: "There are springs in England where the most sparkling soda water can always be had already prepared."

"Why, that is not to be compared with a lake out west," said a by-stander with a perfectly serious countenance, "there you can procure the most delicious champagne, already bottled, and the banks are made of sponge cake." The Englishman caved.

A HEROIC WOMAN.

On the Illinois river, two hundred miles from its junction with the Mississippi, there lived, in 1812, an old pioneer known in those days as "Old Parker, the Squafter." His family consisted of a wife and three children, the oldest a boy of nineteen, a girl of seventeen, and the youngest a boy of fourteen. At the time of which we write, Parker and his oldest boy had gone in company with three Indians on a hunt, expecting to be absent some five or six days. The third day after their departure, one of the Indians returned to Parker's house, came in, and seated himself by the fire, lit his pipe, and commenced smoking in silence. Mrs. Parker thought nothing of this, as it was no uncommon thing for one of or sometimes more of a party of Indians to run abruptly from a hunt, at some sign they might consider ominous of bad luck, and, in such instances, were not very communicative. But at last the Indian broke silence with—

"Ugh, old Parker die."

This exclamation immediately drew Mrs. Parker's attention, who inquired of the Indian,

"What's the matter with Parker?"

The Indian responded—

"Parker sick; tree fell on him; you go—he die."

The replies of the Indian somewhat aroused her suspicions. She, however, came to the conclusion to send her son with the Indian to see what was the matter. The boy and Indian started. That night passed, and the next day too, and neither the boy nor the Indian returned.—This confirmed Mrs. Parker in her opinion that there was foul play on the part of the Indians. So she and her daughter went to work, and barricaded the door and the windows in the best way they could. The youngest boy's rifle was the only one left, he not having taken it with him when he went to hunt his father. The old lady took the rifle, and the daughter the axe; and thus armed they determined to watch through the night, and defend themselves if necessary. They had not long to wait. About nightfall, or shortly after that, some one commenced knocking at the door, crying out—

"Mother! mother!"

But Mrs. Parker thought the voice was not exactly like that of her son; and in order to ascertain the fact, she asked him where the Indians were. The reply, which was, "um gone," satisfied her on that point. She then said, as if speaking to her son—

"Put your ear to the latch-hole of the door. I want to tell you something before you open the door."

The head was placed at the keyhole, and the old lady fired through the spot and killed the Indian. She stepped back from the door instantly, and it was well she did so, for quickly two rifle bullets came crashing through the window. A death-like silence ensued for about five minutes, when two more bulls, in quick succession, were fired through the door; then followed a tremendous punching with a log, the door gave way, an Indian was about to spring in, when the unerring rifle, fired by the old lady, stretched his body across the threshold of the door. The remaining, or more properly, surviving Indian fired at random, and ran, doing no injury. The mother and daughter, with the rifle and axe, then went to the river, took the canoe, and in six days arrived among the old French settlers in St Louis. A party of about a dozen men crossed over into Illinois, and, after an unusual search, returned without finding either Parker or the boys. They were never found. There are yet some of the settlers in the neighborhood of Peoria who still point out the spot where old Parker, the squatter, lived.—Sketches of Frontier Life.

REARING CHILDREN.

1. Children should not go to school until six years old.

2. Should not learn at home during that time more than the alphabet, religious teachings excepted.

3. Should be fed with plain substantial food, at regular intervals of not less than four hours.

4 Should not be allowed to eat anything within two hours of bed time.

5 Should have nothing for supper but a single cup of warm drink, such as very weak tea of some kind, or cambric tea or warm milk and water, with one slice of cold bread and butter—nothing else.

6 Should sleep in separate beds, on hair mattresses, without caps, feet first well warmed by the fire or rubbed with the hands until perfectly dry; extra covering on the lower limbs, but little on the body

7. Should be compelled to be out of doors for the greater part of daylight, from after breakfast until half an hour before sundown, unless in damp, raw weather, when they should not be allowed to go outside the door.

8 Never limit a healthy child as to sleeping or eating except at supper; but compel regularity to both; it is of great importance

9 Never compel a child to sit still, nor interfere with its enjoyment, as long as it is not actually injurious to person or property, or against good morals.

10 Never threaten a child; it is cruel, unjust and dangerous What you have to do, do it, and be done with it.

11. Never speak harsh or angrily, but mildly, kindly, and when really needed, firmly—no more.

12. By all means arrange it so that the last words between you and your children at bed time, especially the younger ones, shall be words of unmixed loveliness and affection.—Hall's Journal of Health.

A PULPIT ANECDOTE.—Some days since we chanced to be in company with several divines, who were relating numerous amusing anecdotes of the pulpit. Among others the following struck our fancy as one deserving of record:

"I was," said the reverend gentleman, "attending divine service in Norfolk several years ago, during a season of excitement. While the person officiating was in the midst of a most interesting discussion, an old lady among the congregation arose, clapped her hands and exclaimed. 'Merciful Father, if I had one more feather in my wing of faith, I would fly off to glory!' The worthy gentleman thus interrupted, immediately replied, 'Good Lord, stick it in and let her go; she's but a trouble here.'" That quieted the old lady.

☞ A clergyman observing a poor man in the road breaking stone with a pick-axe, and kneeling to get at his work better, made this remark:

"Ah, John, I wish I could break the stony hearts of my hearers as easily as you are breaking these stones."

The man replied; "Perhaps, Master, you don't work on your knees."

THOUGHTS AND FACTS.—Keep yourself from the anger of a great man, from the tumult of a mob, from a man of ill fame, from a widow that has been thrice married, from a wind that comes in at a hole, and from a reconciled enemy.

A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

Lawyer's pockets are lined with the willfulness of their clients.

It is not the burden, but the over-burden, that kills the beast.

It is hard to bring out of the flesh what is bred in the bone.

If pride were an art, there would be many teachers.

You need not get a golden pen to write upon dirt.

THE BRAVERY OF TWO NOTED FILIBUSTERS.—A correspondent, writing from Panama, on the 6th inst., says: "Mora bore his fate manfully. The file of men drawn up for his execution stood with their muskets not ten feet from him, and yet the five balls in his body did not kill him.—'Give me another shot gentleman,' he said, 'and finish me!' He refused to be blindfolded, but stood calmly facing his executioners. His body, as well as that of Canas, was thrown into a hole in the sand, both with the clothes on in which they were murdered. Canas was striking fire with his steel and flint to relight his cigarito at the moment he felt the lead at his heart. He was shot at the foot of the monument erected to his honor for his many services to Costa Rica, in the Plaza at Punta Arena.

THUS IS LIFE.—If we die to day, the sun will shine as brightly, and the birds sing as sweetly, to-morrow. Business will not be suspended a moment, and the great mass will not bestow a thought upon our memories. Is he dead? will be the solemn inquiry of a few, as they pass to their work. But no one will miss us except our immediate connections, and in a short time they will forget us and laugh as merrily as when we sat beside them. Thus shall we all, now active in life, pass away. Our children crowd close behind us, and they will soon be gone In a few years not a living being can say, "I remember him." We live in another age, and did business with those who slumber in the tomb. Thus is life. How rapidly it passes!

WAGGISH CLERGYMAN.—A certain elder who was holding a series of meetings at a place where but little assistance could be found, was overjoyed one Sabbath morning to see a brother, who was a good preacher, ride up, and immediately insisted that he should preach for him.

"No," said the brother, "the people came to hear you, but if you wish, I will prepare the way for you by preaching the text:—'He that cometh after me is greater than I.'"

"If you do," said the brother, "I will preach in the evening from "All that came before me were thieves and robbers."

HAPPINESS AND DUTY.—We know of nothing more contemptible, unmanly or unwomanly, and craven, than the everlasting sighing for "happiness." Those who have the most of it think the least about it. But in the thinking about and doing their Duty, happiness comes—because the heart and mind are occupied with earnest thought that touches at a thousand points the beautiful and sublime realities of the Universe! the heart and mind are brought (and reverently it is said) in contact with the Creator and Ruler and Father of all—the PERFECT BLISS.

WHAT IS AN EDITOR.—He is an individual who reads newspapers, writes articles on all subjects, sets type, reads proof, works at press, folds and packs papers—prints jobs, runs errands, saws wood, works in the garden, talks to all who call on him, receives blame for many things he never did, works from 4 A. M. to 10 P. M., and never collects half his debts. Who does not wish himself an editor!

☞ "Mother," said little Ned one morning; after having fallen from his bed—"mother, I think I know why I fell out of bed last night. It was because I slept too near the place where I got in." Musing a while, as if in doubt whether he had given the right explanation, he added, "no, that was not the reason; it was because I slept too near where I fell out!"

☞ "What do you call this?" said Jones, tapping his breakfast lightly with his fork.

"Call it," snarled the landlord, "what do you call it?"

"Well, really," said Jones, "I don't know. It hasn't quite hair enough in it for plaster, but there is a little too much in it for hash."

☞ Once upon a time, an Irishman and a negro were fighting, and when grabbling with each other, the Irishman exclaimed:

"Ye divil of a black nagur! cry enough, or I'll fight till I die!"

"So'll I boss!" sung out the darkey, "I always does."

The South.

If we may judge from the news daily received from the South, the terrible calamity of disunion, which was to be the result of Lincoln's election, is about to befal this glorious confederacy, that is, if a few insane individuals who inhabit South Carolina and a few other States can effect such a result. But we can well afford to laugh at their folly. This union will stand as strong and united when they are dead and forgotten, as it did when Gen. Washington occupied the Presidential chair. It is not in the power of a few men in South Carolina, Georgia and a few other States, even assisted by the powers that be at Washington, to dissolve this Union. There are enough conservative and reliable men in South Carolina to wipe out all the disunionists in that State, when the latter attempts resistance to the Federal authority. If the secessionists of South Carolina and kindred States are not disposed to submit to the rule of Abraham Lincoln they can move out of the country for four years, but they must leave the public buildings and the territory behind them. South Carolina will not go out of the Union, but some of her inhabitants may be helped out of it by the Sheriff or a military officer, assisted by a strong hemp cord, unless they mend their ways, and submit to the will of the majority. We are pleased to note that the President intends to put his foot on the nullifiers, as soon as they commit an act which will warrant his interferance, and it is also stated that many of the most wealthy and influential men in the State will leave it, if a set of fanatics persist in their course of mad folly. The inhabitants of that State were settled once before and they can be settled again, if needs be.

Result in the Union.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number. "Peterson" has a circulation of 100,000. It will be greatly improved in 1861. It will contain 1000 pages of double column reading matter; 14 steel plates; 12 colored steel fashion plates; 12 colored patterns in Berlin work, embroidery or crotchet and 800 wood engravings—proportionately more than any other periodical gives. Its stories and novelets are by the very best writers. Its fashions are always the latest and prettiest. Every neighborhood ought to make up a club. Its price is but Two DOLLARS a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class Subscribe for it and save a Dollar. To clubs it is cheaper still—viz: three copies for $5, or eight for $10. To every person getting up a club, the Publisher will send a magnificent premium. Specimens sent gratis to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post paid Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

☞ The Legislature of Pennsylvania will soon meet and the duty will devolve on both branches to select officers for the coming session. In the lower House we hear a number of gentlemen spoken of for Speaker, any of whom would doubtless discharge the duties of the position creditably. In the Senate it is likely that Hon. B. M. Palmer, of Schuylkill county, will be chosen Speaker with the same unanimity that he was elected at the close of the last session. He is a man of ability and integrity.—The position is in many respects a very important one, and we should be pleased to hear of Mr. Palmer's election.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The December number of this periodical reached us in advance of all competitors as usual. The engravings are numerous and as rich as formerly and the reading matter interesting. A new volume commences on the first of January, and we would take pleasure in forwarding to Mr. Godey the names of all our advance paying subscribers, at $2.00 each, and he will send his Book for one year. To single subscribers the Book is $3.00 in advance. The fashion-plates alone are worth more to any lady than is asked for the whole Book.

Brownlow on Yancey.

Parson Brownlow, of the Knoxville Whig, gives the following item in the life of Wm. L. Yancey, the head and front of the disunionists:

"The fact that W. L. Yancey killed his uncle, Dr. Earle of South Carolina, has been stated in general terms, but the details have not been given. Dr. Earle lived one mile and a half west of Greenville, where his widow still resides, if alive. A few hundred yards distant is an old field, sometimes used for practising on horseback, but more frequently resorted to as a muster ground. This was the occasion of a drill muster, when Dr. Earle's son, about ten years old went to the ground, as all boys seek to do; and during their wheeling and turning, the boy got in the way. Yancey ordered him to get out of the way, but the boy, in his confusion, got more and more in the way, whereupon Yancey lashed him most unmercifully with a horsewhip. Dr. Earle was not at home; but on returning home through town, a friend told him how cruelly Yancey had treated his son. Yancey told him that the boy had been very insolent and that he had slapped his jaws. Dr Earle replied that he had served him right. When Dr Earle reached home and learned the facts, and found that Yancey had lied to him, he returned to Greenville in search of him. Yancey, knowing the pluck of Dr. Earle, and that he would be detected in the falsehood, prepared himself for a fight. Dr. Earle found Yancey on Dr. Crittenden's porch, and in marching upon him was shot down by Yancey with a pistol. These are the facts as we have them from one born and reared in that vicinity. The fact that he was convicted upon trial, and imprisoned, and afterwards became the subject of Executive clemency, corroborates the truth of this version."

WHAT SECESSIONISTS MUST BEWARE OF.—There is one delusion, says the New York Times, which Southern Disunionists may as well dismiss from their minds at once. They evidently cherish the belief that the Federal Government will never attempt to coerce a seceding State to return to the Union. Much of their confidence is based upon this expectation. Now, this is mere nonsense. Its truth or falsehood depends wholly upon what they mean by secession.—South Carolina may undoubtedly withdraw her Senators and representatives from Congress if she chooses; she cannot be "coerced" into sending them to Washington. If she decides to stop the mails, and forbid the establishment of Federal Post-offices within her limits, there is no reason why the Federal Government should force them upon her. If her juries acquit men charged with offences against the Federal laws—if her citizens refuse to serve as Federal Marshals, or Judges—the Government need not specially interfere, for it has no direct interest at stake.

But if a vessel, entering Charleston, refuses to pay the Federal duties, the Government has no choice but to compel payment. If a vessel proposes to leave Charleston without a proper clearance under Federal authority, the Government vessels will compel her return or seize and confiscate her as a lawful prize. And if South Carolina troops take possession of Fort Moultrie, the Federal Government has no choice but to send a man-of-war thither and drive them out. These are acts of positive aggression—acts of war, and must be met as such. If South Carolina chooses simply to stand still, she may consider herself in or out of the Union as she may prefer. But if in any way, she makes war upon the Federal Government, she must look out for peace.

☞ The Post Office Department has issued the following order:

Whereas, By the Act of the 3d March, 1855, the postage upon all letters, except such as are entitled to pass free between places in the United States, is required to be prepaid; and whereas, the Department, through courtesy, has hitherto, at a considerable labor and expense, notified the parties addressed, in all instances in which the writer failed to prepay, that their letters would be forwarded on receiving the postage due thereon; and whereas, instead of diminishing, the number of such letters continues to increase, thus showing that the omission to prepay is intentional, it is therefore ordered that, from and after the first day of November 1860, all such unpaid letters be sent to the Dead Letter Office, to be disposed of in like manner as other dead letters.

MAKING LAND.—The city of Boston Massachusetts, is engaged in filling some two hundred acres of swamp flats immediately west of the common. The material for filling is brought seven miles on rail tracks, employing ten locomotives, one hundred cars, and an army of workmen. It is estimated that forty years will be required to complete the work, and that the land thus made will be worth ten millions dollars.

WAIVER OF EXEMPTION.—The Supreme Court is getting its eyes open to the folly of allowing individuals to repeal acts of Assembly, and in a recent decision Judge Woodward remarks on the exemption law:

"Perhaps it would have been well if the Court had set out by denying altogether the capacity of the debtor to waive the statutory exemption in favor of any creditor. It might have been urged in support of the family of the debtor rather than to the debtor himself, and that his caprice or will, tempted as they might be by the creditor, should not defeat the legislative benefaction to him or of those dependent upon him."

A SNAKE IN A LETTER.—A negro in Chicago astonished the post office loungers a few days ago with a series of most agonizing shrieks and screams. She had just received a small package from Marion, and on opening it a green adder was revealed to her astonished gaze. The bystanders soon dispatched the reptile, and the woman showed them a letter which her husband had written, urging her to "kiss this dear little pet for me, and take it, and sleep with it for God's sake." He also informed her that he was going to get a bill of divorce as soon as possible. Jealousy was of course the origin of this domestic escapade.

TO DRIVE AWAY RATS.—A correspondent of the Gardener's Monthly says: "I have tried the effect of introducing into the entrance of their numerous holes, runs, or hiding places, small portions of cloride of lime, or bleached powder, wrapped in calico and stuffed into the entrance holes, and thrown loose by spoonfuls into the drain from the house. This drove the rats away for a twelvemonth, when they returned to it—They were treated in the same manner, with like effect. The cure was most complete. I presume it was the chlorine gas, which did not agree with their olfactories."

☞ A Bible was recently sold at auction in France, which had been presented by a nobleman to a deceased actress. The purchaser turned over the leaves, and found scattered here and there bank bills amounting to about $3,000, which the actress had never discovered. Her heirs have commenced a suit to recover the money.

GEN. SCOTT.—General Scott is the largest man in the American service. He is six feet six inches tall, and weighs two hundred and sixty pounds. He is seventy four years old, yet his health is good and his whole system apparently vigorous, much of which is doubtless owing to his temperate habits.

☞ A young monkey, the only one ever known to be born in America, was born at Goodwin's Zoological Garden, Boston, last week, and two days after three baby lions were added to the already extensive collection.

☞ The Hippopotamus has arrived in New Orleans, where he is considered the greatest show, the most genuine and most attractive, ever seen in the Crescent City

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Barhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

(Ed. Sheboygan Nieuwsbode, Sheboygan, Wis.)

COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing; let its merit be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen by the immense quantities of this medicine which are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

CAIRO, ILL., July 29th, 1860.

MESSRS. JOHN WILCOX & CO.:—Your "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm," has done wonders. I was wholly despondent and wretched when I applied it, and in five hours the chills were removed and no fever has ensued. It is the simplest cure imaginable, and a wonder of nature or art. I would not be without this "Inpectine" a single hour.—By constantly wearing I seem to be "ague proof."

Yours very truly, E. M. STOUT.

MOBILE, Alabama, July 23d, 1860.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been snatched from the grave by the application of your wonderful "Inpectine," or "Persian Fever Charm." For several years I have suffered every season from Fever and Ague. Last Spring my life was threatened, but your remedy has destroyed the disease and I am rapidly gaining an appetite and strength.

Respectfully yours, D. N. BARRON.

This truly wonderful preventive and cure for Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers will be sent mail, post paid, on receipt of one dollar. Also for sale at all respectable Druggists and Country Stores.

A Novelty in the Art World! PHOTOGRAPHY UPON PORCELAIN.

Secured by letters patent in the United States, England, France, and Belgium.

THE AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHIC PORCELAIN COMPANY, No. 781 Broadway, New York, having secured their novel and ingenious invention by American and European patents, are fully prepared to execute all orders for presenting all the attractive and advantageous features of ordinary photographs, the brilliancy and finish of a water-color drawing, and a hitherto unattained quality of durability, by being rendered as imperishable as the natural properties of the articles upon which they are transferred.

Miniature Likenesses of Persons on China

As the patented process of the Company enables the reproduction of Photographs, not only on plain surfaces, but upon such as are round or of any degree of irregularity—portraits can be reproduced with faultless accuracy, and deficiency of delineation upon Porcelain wares of any description and dimension used as articles of luxury or of household utility, such as thereby securing faithful portraits and furnishing a unique and exquisite style of ornamentation of articles in domestic use.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the Fine Arts desirous of having Portraits on Porcelain, the Company have imported from Europe a collection of superior porcelain goods, manufactured to their own order, which they sell at cost prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right, and consequently the only persons authorized to use the process, they have determined, in order

To afford People in every section of the Union

an opportunity to possess

PORTRAITS ON CHINA,

to make the following proposition to

Residents in the Country, who are unable to visit personally the Atlier and Galleries in New York.

Persons sending a photograph, ambrotype, or daguerreotype to the office of the Company in New York, accompanied by

FIVE DOLLARS,

they will secure in like manner,

A handsome French Vase or Toilet Article,

with the Portrait reproduced by the patented process.

By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and

FIFTEEN DOLLARS,

they will receive in return

A Pair of rich Sevres Vases, with the portraits executed equal to miniature paintings and, in like manner, portraits can be reproduced on porcelain wares or

Vases of every Quality of Finish, ranging in price from

Twenty to One Hundred Dollars the Pair.

N. B.—Be particular in writing the address, town, county and State distinctly.

LOCAL ITEMS.

CHURCH DOOR LOAFING.—"Harping on that subject again," we think we hear some of our readers say, but those who were in attendance at the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening last, and observed the crowd of ill-bred, impudent church door loafers, who formed lines on each side of the door way and pavement, will not wonder that we refer to this almost intolerable nuisance. We refer to it for the purpose of copying the following item from the Pittsburgh True Press, of Tuesday last:—

Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, had before him on Monday, eight young men who had been arrested on Sunday evening, for loafing in front of the Beaver street M E. Church, during service hour. They, together with numerous other young men, had been standing about the church door awaiting the time of dismissal, for the purpose of obtaining the company of this or that young lady who was silly enough to hitch on to their arms for the asking. Four constables arrived just as the congregation was being dismissed, and at the pressing invitation of the officers of the law, the girl hunters were compelled to take their arms—each officer being provided with two "nice young men." The balance of the crowd fled like sheep, thus confessing that they had been caught in a mean act. The captured gallants were marched to the lock-up, where they remained all night, and in the morning they were dismissed upon paying a fine of one dollar each.

Now if the nuisance can be abated in this way in Allegheny city, why can not the authorities of the church in this place request constable Ely to attend about the church for an evening, or two and treat these outside "girl hunters" in a manner similar to that noted above. We think it would soon put a stop to the practice. Try it, gentlemen, and you will have the thanks of all the gentlemen and ladies who attend the church.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—Mr. David Bolger of Martinsburg, whose mind for some days previously seemed to be unbalanced, went out of his house on Wednesday evening last at about 5 o'clock, remarking that he would be back in a few moments, but not returning as promised, his family looked for him but could not find him. They at once gave the alarm to their neighbors, and nearly the whole town turned out in search of him, pushing their search and inquiry to all the neighborhood around, but he could no where be found, nor has he yet been discovered or heard of. He was an estimable man, and his sudden and mysterious disappearance has overwhelmed his family in grief, and the Martinsburg community in sadness. The only clue to his derangement was the recent death of a beloved son, which had deeply affected him. He had spoken of going to the Asylum at Harrisburg, and in the hope that he had gone thither inquiry has been made by telegraph, but he is not there. On the day before his disappearance he seemed cheerful and happy, engaging in religious exercises with a lively interest.—We still hope to hear of his turning up alive somewhere, and of his ultimate recovery.

Since the above was put in type we have received a note in regard to the matter from Messrs. Hassler, Morrow, and Everhart, neighbors of Mr. Bolger. They describe Mr. Bolger as about 50 years of age, with rather sharp features, and as between 5 ft. 10 inches and 6 ft. high. He was dressed in a black frock coat, black pants, morocco shoes, and a brown straw had. Any tidings of him will be thankfully received by those gentlemen, on behalf of his distressed and afflicted family. Address them at Martinsburg, Blair County, Pa.—Register.

☞ Well, it's our private opinion, publicly expressed, that if all who are now wishing themselves in "Dixie's Land," could get there within a reasonable length of time, that famous country would soon be well populated and we might as well "pull up stakes" and go along, as there would not be many left in this region to read our paper or call upon us for job work. Everybody sings or whistles "Dixie;" brass bands blow out "Dixie," and it is nothing but "Dixie" from morning till evening, in the streets, alleys, work shops, stores, offices, parlors, kitchens and every place where men, women, boys or girls inhabit. "Dixie" bids fair to have the most extended reputation, be more horribly butchered, and in the course of twelve months be more deprecated than was ever "Old Uncle Ned" or "Old Virginia."

GOOD WILL FIRE COMPANY.—The Directors of this company are now making an effort to raise the balance due on their engine, and we hope that all who may be called upon to contribute for that purpose will respond as liberally as their circumstances will admit. It would not require much from each property holder if all would contribute as they should. It is certainly very unpleasant to the Directors, and all connected with the company, to have this debt hanging over them, especially when the debt has been incurred for the safety of property holders. Give them a lift, gentlemen.

☞ As we predicted some two weeks since, there was about as much use in sending the military to Bennington Furnace, to quell the riot among the "strikes," at that place, as there would be in attaching a fifth wheel to a wagon. They found no rioters and heard of no "strikes," but threw the county into a clever bill of costs.

DIXIE'S LAND.—In order to gratify the friends of that popular air, "Dixie," we have the pleasure of giving the original words of that song, and do so in the hope that the voice instead of the wind may be more thoroughly cultivated:

I wish I was in de land of cotton,
Old times dar am not forgotten;
Look away! look away! look away! Dixie Land,
In Dixie land where I was born in,
Early on one frosty morning,
Look away! look away! look away! Dixie Land,

CHORUS:—Den I wish I was in Dixie, Hooray! Hooray!
In Dixie Land I'll took my stand,
To lib and die in Dixie.
Away! away! away down south in Dixie!
Away! away! away down south in Dixie!

Old Missus marry "Will de weaber;"
William was a gay deceaber;
Look away! &c.
But when he put his arm around 'er,
He smiled as fierce as a "forty pounder,"
Look away! &c.

CHORUS.—Den I wish I was in Dixie, &c.

His face was sharp as a butcher's cleaber,
But dat did not seem to greab 'er;
Look away! &c.
Old Missus acted de foolish part,
And died for a man that broke her heart;
Look away! &c.

CHORUS.—Den I wish I was in Dixie! &c.

Now here's a health to the next old Missus,
And all the gals that want to kiss us,
Look away! &c.
But if you want to drive 'way sorrow,
Come an hear dis song to-morrow;
Look away! &c.

CHORUS.—Den I wish I was in Dixie! &c.

Dars buckwheat cakes an "Ingin batter,"
Makes you fat or a little fatter;
Look away! &c.
Den hoe it down and scratch your grabble,
To Dixie Land I'm bound to trabble;
Look away! &c.

CHORUS.—Den I wish I was in Dixie! &c.

THE RAILROAD CONDUCTOR.—The railroad conductor is one of the productions of the age, a recent phase of humanity. Amid the roar of a score or two of iron wheels, and flying like a bird, he must lead a quiet life; accurate amid confusion, patient amid vexation, courteous amid censure and complaint, and prompt as the sun, a first-rate conductor can be made out of no poorer material than a first-rate man. Job was never a conductor; that trial was spared him. Of all sorts of people, all sorts of money, all sorts of weather, he is the special victim.—He cannot keep aloof from a bear or a bore, any more than he can from a bride, or a beauty.—Like Death, he must approach "with equal step," and pay his respects to everybody. He must be accountable for the snow drift that obstructs the track, for the broken rail that tumbles the train into the ditch, for the cars that failed to connect. He must know when everybody will get everywhere, and what it will cost to go, and where it is best to stay. He meets people sometimes who do not know where they are going, and he must be able to tell them; people who do not know where they got abroad and he must gently remind them.

BAKER'S CRYSTAL SPING MILLS FLOUR.—The excellent flour manufactured at this mill is now retailed at the following prices:—

Extra Family W. Wheat Flour, per bbl.		$7,00.
" Superfine Red "	" " "	6,50.
Superfine	" " " "	6,25.

Mill Feed sold at different prices.
A liberal percentage given to retailers.
All orders are filled promptly on shortest notice.

The mill wagon visits this place four days in each week for the purpose of supplying all who order flour from this mill. We know by experience that there is no better flour in the country than that manufactured at the Crystal Spring Mills. One sack of it will be sufficient to convince any good baker that what we say is true.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—George McDonough, son of Mr. Strickler, of Mulberry street, Hollidaysburg, aged three years, was so burned on Sunday morning last as to cause his death. He was playing with the fire in the stove by lighting pieces of paper, whilst his mother was up stairs. His little sister had taken the paper from him and put it away, but he got it again, when his clothes took fire, and before his mother could relieve him he was all in a crisp. Dr. Happersett was called, and dressed the wound. He survived only seven hours.—Register.

MORE OPPOSITION.—We notice that Esquire McClelland has opened a store in the room formerly occupied by him as a Justice office. He has on hand an assortment of men and boys' hats and caps, ladies and misses bonnets and hats, plain white and figured shirts, collars, gloves for ladies and gents, hosiery, trimmings of all kinds, stationary, and every variety of notions, and last, but of no means least, (in size) skeleton skirts for the ladies. Step in and see the squire if you want either law, justice, or the worth of your money.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening last, Augustine Hamstead, a fireman on the P. R. R. between this place and Conemaugh, had his leg broken about half way between the knee and ankle and his foot badly crushed by being caught between the cross-heads of the locomotive which he was oiling. He was brought over to this place on the Fast Line, on Sunday morning, and placed under the care of Dr. J. T. Christy, who thinks that he can save the leg and foot.

WHAT'S BETTER.—Verily, what more easily induces a man to accompany you on a short walk, than to invite him to Taylor's saloon, next door to the Bank, and partake of a dozen of the fine Cove Plant Oysters which may at all times be had at that establishment, together with good apples, confectionaries, nuts, cakes, pies, cigars, tobacco, and various drinks. If those who so often wish themselves in "Dixie's land" would call at Taylor's a few times, their tune would change from "Dixie" to "Taylor's"

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—On Thursday of last week, Frank, the youngest son of Mr. D. D. Woods, of this place, met with a singular and very painful accident. He was playing on the side walk in front of his father's house, when he fell—his chin striking the pavement—and bit off the end of his tongue. Dr. Gemmill, of Altoona, was sent for, who sewed on the piece, but up to this time it is not healed, and causes the little fellow a great deal of suffering.—Tyrone Star.

MINCE MEAT.—Otto Rossi will accept our thanks for a crock of as fine mince meat as was ever baked into pies. If it was a sample of what he manufactures for sale, then those who buy it of him have good pies for dessert. He intends to keep the article constantly on hand at his establishment two doors below Patton's Hall, and has also placed it on sale at J. & J. Lowther's store. We assure those who want good mince meat that they will get it when they buy of Rossi.

RESIGNED.—We notice by the Hollidaysburg papers that Rev. D. X. Junkin, D. D., has resigned his charge of the Presbyterian congregation in that place and intends removing to Parkesburg, Chester county.

PROTRACTED MEETING.—A protracted meeting was commenced in the Methodist Church, in this place, on Sunday evening last. We hope it may result in great good to many.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you 'elp me of an 'eadache?" "Does it bache 'ard" says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumat sm and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Disease of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches: Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.
For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the suffering index.

BRIDGET.—Misus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Gine, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills.—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be aither knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.
Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.
Bridget.—och! sure now and you've said it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the very source and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills at the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidnous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?
Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes. I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.
Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.
Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous cases of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the over-tasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.
They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.
They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.
For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.
The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.
They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with pefect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any diet greeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC
AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.
APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PRIVATE FAMILIES
WOLFE'S Pure Cognac Brandy.
WOLFE'S Pure Maderie, Sherry and Port Wine.
WOLFE'S Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
WOLFE'S Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.
ALL IN BOTTLES.
I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac-simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.
GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market St., Phila.
Sole Agent for Philadelphia.
Read the following from the New York Courier:
ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there 's one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1858; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.
His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.
We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!
AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will pos tively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along and will want an outfit, I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST
as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because as the season advances (the merchants in the east say) prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of
LADIES' DRESS GOODS
for the season, also a full assortment of GROCERIES,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
LADIES' SHAKER BONNETS,
Misses' Felt and Straw Hats, and everything in the line of Dry Goods and Notions which it is unnecessary to enumerate. All of which will be sold for cash, or to prompt paying monthly customers, or exchanged for all articles of Produce which can be consumed here or exchanged for goods in the East.
A. McCORMICK.
N. B.—The subscriber has arrangements in the East by which he can supply any article at short notice.
Altoona, Oct. 25, 1860. A. McCORMICK.

NEW GROCERY AND LIQUOR STORE.—The undersigned would beg leave to announce to the citizens of Blair county and vicinity that he has opened his new Store on Virginia street, three doors below the Superintendent's Office, where he has just received from the East and West a large assortment of Foreign and Domestic Liquors, consisting as follows:

French Otard Brandy, Cognac Brandy, Peach Brandy, Cherry Brandy, Old Burgundy Wine, Old Port Wine, Jamaica Rum, Holland Gins Old Rye Whiskey, Monongahela Whiskey, and Rhine Wine, which he has himself imported. Retailers of Liquors and Farmers will find it to their advantage to buy of him, as he will sell at CITY PRICES.
He will also keep constantly on hand an assortment of
GROCERIES,
*Such as Flour, Bacon, Salt, Fish, Tobacco, Segars,

NEW GROCERY FEED AND PROVISION STORE.

The subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity that he has opened a store of the above kind, near the corner of Adaline and Julia streets, East Altoona, where he will keep constantly on hand a full supply of everything in his line. His are all fresh and will be sold at prices as low as those of any other establishment in town. His stock of provisions, consisting of will be sold a little cheaper than they can be bought any where else. His Flour is obtained from the best mills in the Western part of the State, and is warranted to be what it is represented.

All kinds of Feed for horses, cows and hogs, always on hand.

I intend to keep such an assortment that I shall at all times be able to supply my customers with whatever they may need, and I intend also to sell at prices which will make it a saving to those who patronize my store.

July 22, 1858–3m. HENRY DELL.

Stoves, Tin & Sheet Iron Ware,
SPOUTING, &C.

SRIGG WOULD RESPECTfully inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity that he keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of Cooking, Parlor, Office and Shop Stoves, of all styles and sizes, to suit the wants of all, which he will sell at low prices, on reasonable terms.

He also keeps on hand a large stock of Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware, consisting of all articles for culinary purposes—Coal Scuttles, Stove Pipe, &c.

He has also purchased the right of sale in Blair county, of R. Y. JONES'

IMPROVED SAUSAGE STUFFER,

an invention which needs only to be seen to be appreciated and should be possessed by every farmer, butcher or those requiring such a machine.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.

I have just received a stock of No. 1 French Brandy, for medicinal purposes.

Also a large stock of excellent Wines, for medicinal purposes, together with a lot of the best old Rye Whiskey to be found in the country.

Altoona, May 27, 1859.–1y] JOHN BOWMAN.

THE GREAT QUESTION WHICH now agitates the mind of every person is, where can I get the best article for my money? In regard to other matters, the subscriber would not attempt to direct, but if you want anything in the line of he invites an examination of his stock and work.

BOOTS OR SHOES

He keeps constantly on hand an assortment of Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, &c., which he offers at fair prices.

He will give special attention to custom work, all of which will be warranted to give satisfaction. None but the best workmen are employed.

Remember my shop is on Virginia street, immediately opposite Kessler's Drug Store.

HAIR OILS, COLOGNES, POMades, Shaving Cream, Toilet Soaps, &c., for sale by

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND.

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 66 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

MEDICATED FUR CHEST PROTECTOR, A SAFE SHIELD AGAINST THOSE fearful diseases Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion and the continual changes of our climate, for sale at the Drug Store of G. W. KESSLER.

MOFFAT'S
LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.
CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell or gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the Bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,
The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

Altoona, May 26–3m JACOB SNYDER.
